The Chief Plays Host to Youth

Pre-Schoolers in 'Graduation'

Friday, September 10, 1954, was a big day in the life of 20 Albany Pre-school children, when the annual graduation party was held at the Pre-school, 850 Masonic Ave.

The gala affair began with an excursion to the firehouse when junior firemen tried on hats and sat in the seat of a shiny red fire truck. Albany firemen slid down the pole to the delight of the graduates.

After the trip to the firehouse the children returned to the pre-school for ice cream and cookies served around a nautical setting. Chairmen for the party were Mesdames John Haskins and Paul Ralston, aided by participating mothers and the school's director, Mrs. Nell Curran.

Graduates included: Collen, daughter of Mrs. Miriam Eagleton; Larry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Foster; Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Handlos; David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hansen; Bob, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren-Heywood; Jeanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henri Larmuseau; Paul, son of Dr. and Mrs. Holger Mouritsen; Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Orlob; Jimmy, son of Mrs. Jack Pattillo; Jeffery, son of Mrs. Lucille Ruhl; Teresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sandretto; Eric, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Seatchard; Marilyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Senior; Julie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Nderkoffler; Connie Jo, daughter Dr. and Mrs. Kahn Ueyana; Kacy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Willing; Galen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon A. Wolf; Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wise, and Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zugnoui.

Board of Education Holds Up Debate on Longer School Year

By a 3 to 1 vote the Albany Board of Education turned thumbs down on listening to Board member John Longaker's criticisms of the idea of a 12-month school year. Board President Dr. Philip Meads was absent.

The vote followed a motion by Board member Milton Porter that copies of both Longaker's and Mrs. Walton's reports, dealing with the extension of the school year, be supplied all Board members and that both reports be considered at the same time at a Board meeting.

"I think this is the most undemocratic gesture I have ever witnessed in any public group," exclaimed Longaker.

Dr. Leslie Bennet, vice president of the Board, ruled that Longaker could read his paper, but said the Board would have to vote on whether the lengthy report could be included in the minutes of the meeting.

Longaker questioned the correctness of the minutes inasmuch as they did not include the words "12-month school year." He said he had heard Mrs. Walton refer to the 12-month year himself and had read it in the newspapers.

Mrs. Walton denied making the statement and said she simply asked for permission to study benefits

CITY COUNCIL KILLS PROPOSED ORDINANCE ON COMPETITIVE BIDS

The Albany City Council at this week's meeting, voted down the proposed ordinance to require competitive bidding on purchases of capital items.

The measure would make it mandatory to advertise for bids on all purchases over $300. It died for lack of a second after being brought to a vote by Councilwoman Kathie Zahn. Councilman Edward Combs, who made the original motion to draft the ordinance, was absent.

Soroptimist Club Lays Plans for Busy Fall Season

Nell Moore and June McMahon gave their report on their attendance at the Soroptimist convention held in Banff, Alberta, Canada, earlier this year. As time ran out and much pertinent material is yet to be discussed, it was decided to have an October Round Table to finish the reports.

Announcement was made of the Venture Club dinner to be held at Palm Gardens, Tuesday, September 21, at 8 p.m.

Soroptimists were invited to attend the Albany Solano Avenue Merchants Fall Dinner party, Wednesday evening, September 22, at the Cerrito Club. As three Soroptimists are officers of the Merchants Association let us turn out to honor them, said Kay Fitz, Annalee Denham and Irene Glasen. For tickets see or call either of the three popular members of the association.

The board of directors will meet Monday, Sept. 20 at Josephine Foley's home, 608-C San Gabriel Avenue, Time: 7:30 p.m. sharp.

which might be derived by extending the school year.

Longaker agreed to the wording, "possibility of extending," instead of "a 12-month school year," and the minutes were approved.

In other business, non-certificated employees in the Albany School District asked the Board for salary increases comparable to those received by other employees in the district.

In a letter to the Board, the employees pointed out that there has been no adjustment of salaries of the non-certificated employees since July 1, 1953. Since that time many adjustments have been made in salaries paid to industrial and government employees.

The Council delayed action on a request made by the Alameda Shoreline Planning Commission for Albany's master plan, despite Mayor Lewis Howell's warning that the county plan could not be completed until Albany took action.

The County Commission emphasized in its request that Alameda County is one of four counties without completed plans. "By not having an adopted plan for shoreline acquisition and development, Alameda County is in the position of perhaps losing its unspent funds in the future and not receiving its proper share of State allocations," the county commission reported.

Some $10,000,000 was appropriated in 1945 by the State to be allocated among the counties for shoreline development. Of the total, Alameda County was allocated $500,000.

Mayor Howell said the county "could be criticized for 25 years" if the plans were not completed. He suggested submitting Albany's preliminary master plan which is still under preparation by planning consultant Lawrence Livingston.

Mrs. Zahn charged that the mayor's decision was "hasty," since the Albany plan had not been approved by the people. "What if the people of Albany don't approve the master plan?" she inquired.

"All I want is for Albany to have its share of that $500,000," replied Howell.

The matter was held over until next Monday's meeting for further discussion.

The Council appointed Jerome R. Waldie deputy city attorney by a vote of 3 to 1, with Mrs. Zahn dissenting.

Councilwoman Zahn charged the Council with "hasty" and "illegal" action. "The fact that Deputy City Attorney Waldie is to work without compensation is a violation of the State labor law," she declared.

She explained that the city charter (Continued on page two)

Charming Mrs. Lou Little, wife of the famous university football coach, is expert at "holding the line" of a budget.

"Compared with other spreads at any price, BLUE BONNET Margarine is my best nutrition buy. It contains both essential vitamins A and D in constant amount the year 'round. Active Program
For Playgrounds

During the fall term two, three and four directors will be at each of the three elementary schools, Codornices, Cornell and Marin, starting at 2 p.m. daily. These directors play an integral role in the schools. Under the direction of Bert Griffin, director of physical education and recreation for the Albany schools, they work in close cooperation with the teachers of the schools. As a result, the physical education program during school hours and the recreation program after school hours are coordinated in such a way as to benefit the child to the maximum. The sports appropriate for each season are taught as skills during the school day and then played as recreation after school. Some inter-school competition, most of which will be in the form of play days for boys and girls, will be held throughout this school year.

The Saturday programs will also include, in addition to the three elementary schools, Vista and MacGregor primary schools. The Saturday morning programs, scheduled from 10 to noon, include quiet games, the use of apparatus and "castle building" in the sand. The afternoons, 1 to 3, will be given over to such active sports as softball, kickball and running games.

These afternoon and Saturday sessions have proven to be both popular and beneficial to children. They provide an excellent opportunity for growth in the habits, attitudes and skills relating to physical development and play.

Reading and writing need proper lighting. Good lighting is so easy to have in your home. Just make sure that each study lamp is at least 25 inches tall from base to top of shade. That the lower edge of the shade is 15 inches above table top. The shade should be at least 16 inches in diameter at the bottom, light in color, and opaque. Lamp should have a diffusing bowl, and a 150-watt bulb. With P. G. and E. rates, good lighting is inexpensive, too! Stop today and let your lamp dealer help you choose the proper study lamp. While you're there, you can stock up on spare bulbs.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ALBANY DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:
 Section 1: It shall be unlawful for any person in the City of Albany to keep any chickens, geese, ducks, turkeys, or other poultry and/or rabbits without a permit issued to the owner by the Department of Public Health, City of Albany, after inspection of the premises and approval of the sanitary condition of the same by said Department of Public Health.

Section 2: The following terms and conditions shall apply to the permit as follows:

Section 3: It shall be unlawful for any person to keep any chickens, geese, ducks or other poultry and/or rabbits in any part of any dwelling, apartment house or hotel. Nor shall any such poultry and/or rabbits be kept in any building within twenty feet of any dwelling, apartment house or hotel, excepting any and all dwelling houses owned, leased or occupied by such person.

Section 4: It shall be unlawful for any person owning any chickens, geese, ducks, or other fowl, excepting geese, or having the same in their possession or under their control, to allow or permit the same to run at large in the City of Albany, or allow or permit the same to run on any street, lane, alley, court, or public place or other grounds belonging to or under the control of the City of Albany, or upon any private property within the limits of the City of Albany without the consent of the property owner.

Section 8: Application for a permit to keep poultry and/or rabbits shall be made on forms furnished for that purpose by the Department of Public Health. The Health Officer shall require as a condition to granting a permit that the applicant pay a fee in the sum of fifty (50) cents and give in writing as follows:

(a) All structures and/or enclosures and premises wherein any poultry and/or rabbits are kept or housed shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, free from all noxious smells and substances, and in compliance with regulations promulgated or approved by the Health Officer, and with all laws of the State of New York and other applicable ordinances of the City of Albany.
 (b) All droppings and food scraps shall be removed from the premises at least once a week and disposed of in a manner satisfactory to the Health Officer.

(c) All food for such poultry and/or rabbits shall be stored in containers which offer protection against rodents in a manner approved by the Health Officer.

(d) The Health Officer or his duly authorized deputy and any other officer or agent of the City of Albany shall have the right to inspect such structures and/or enclosures and premises at any time.

Section 9: Permits shall be in force for the term in which they are issued. The Health Officer may refuse any such permit where, in his judgment, there has been a failure to comply with the conditions of said permit or any violation of this ordinance. The Health Officer shall have the right to suspend or revoke any such permit for failure to comply with the conditions of said permit.
